CIRI Adds Six New Members

ALBANY, NY – Momentum continues to build for the Clear Research Institute (CIRI), as six organizations have joined the Institute. The 2006 ISSA/INTERCLEAN 2006 was held in October. "We're excited that these new members see the value of the Institute," noted Jim Harris, CIRI's Chairman of the Board. The six organizations joined because of their focus on education and the importance of science-based information for proper

The new CIRI members include:

Aramark, a provider of award-winning food, hospitality, facility management services and high-quality uniform and work apparel. Aramark ranked as number one in its industry among FORTUNE magazine's 2006 list of "America's Most Admired Companies" and has been consistently ranking as one of the top three since 1998.

AlturaSolutions Communication, a corporate communications firm that works exclusively for jan-san, foodservice and other building-related manufacturers and organizations. Its specialty is educational, how-to articles that skillfully discuss benefits and features of client's products and services while educating the end-user.

ASCR -- The Association of Specialists in Cleaning and Restoration, Inc. is the trade association for the restoration industry. ASCR's worldwide membership includes companies and professionals who are the leading providers of professional cleaning, remediation, and catastrophe restoration services. ASCR publishes the monthly magazine Cleaning & Restoration and offers training and certification programs that are recognized as the most comprehensive in the industry, such as Certified Restorer, Water Loss Specialist, Certified Mechanical Hygienist' and Certified Rug Specialist.

Enviro-Solutions, a manufacturer of environmentally superior cleaning products dedicated to providing significant, relevant added value in terms of performance, safety and health benefits with no sacrifice to product performance or pricing. Its goal is to provide products that will compete with conventional cleaning products while being safer to the user and workplace environment.

Sensible Life Products, which provides people and industry with the safest, sustainable and efficacious cleaning and disinfection products for sensible, healthy living. The company has received substantial industry, public & media attention as well as widespread recognition & awards for proving that
