Crown Mats (<http://www.crown-mats.com>), one of the oldest and largest matting companies in the United States, is introducing a new line of matting systems designed to help prevent slip-and-fall accidents and promote health and safety in locker rooms, poolside, and in other surroundings where people often walk barefoot.

Called Barefoot Matting, these systems have an open-grid construction that promotes drainage, allowing moisture to flow under the mats while keeping walking surfaces safe and dry.

Plus, because they are designed to be placed around swimming pools, saunas, jacuzzis, and locker room showers, where barefoot traffic is extensive
