Pledge to Make a Change

Going Green is Easier than Many People Think

Ontario--(BUSINESS WIRE)--On April 22, 2008, in honor of International Earth Day, Manitoba, Winnipeg (Canada) is asking staff and students to make a pledge to do at least one thing in their daily work and personal lifestyles that can help protect our environment. In addition, a lucky entrant will be randomly selected to win one of the following prizes:

- A package of Green-certified cleaning products donated by Environmental Swish Maintenance
- Envirologic paper package, provided by Wood Wyant Inc
- A customized bicycle
- A refillable coffee mug and a pound of fair trade coffee, on behalf of Daily Coffee, St. John's College

Maureen Morris, 'millions of people around are staging events and projects to address local issues on this special day,' she says.

Big Changes

That entrants to the contest can pledge to do include:

- Using double-sided printing to reduce waste
- Carpool, bike, or use public transportation
- Start bringing "litterless" lunches to work

- Switch at least one light bulb from conventional to compact florescent bulb
- Sign up for online payment services

Manitoba has always been a leader when it comes to sustainability and protecting the environment," says Mike Sawchuk, vice president and general manager of Enviro-test. "It is not only generating excitement, but it is showing people how easy it can be to integrate green into their lives."

The University of Manitoba was one of Canada's first universities to transfer to Green Power. It served as a model for other schools on how to implement and succeed in Green

ations
