Powr-Flite Hires Industry Veteran as New National Accounts Manager

Fort Worth, TX — Powr-Flite, manufacturers of a full line of professional cleaning equipment, has hired Mike Englund as the company's new national accounts manager.

Englund has more than 30 years' experience in the professional cleaning industry and prior to joining Powr-Flite has worked with some of the biggest players in the market, including Advance, Minuteman and Windsor.

"We found Mike's insight into the industry to be invaluable," says Gary Pelphrey, marketing director of Powr-Flite. "He has real-world experience; he knows where the industry is going and is helping us make the changes we need to make to stay at the forefront."

Established more than 40 years ago, Fort Worth, Texas-based Powr-Flite manufactures a full line of floor-care equipment and carpet extractors for the professional cleaning industry. For more information, visit www.powr-flite.com.
