

Santa Fe Southwest Sizzle

press release

Tuesday, October 04, 2011, 8:40 PM

Waterless Co. Inc. introduces the Santa Fe high-performance no-water urinal system designed for homes, mobile facilities, and space-saving applications.

This ADA-compliant waterless urinal system is made with 30 percent soybean resin and comes with two EcoTrap® inserts, which last longer and cost less than inserts used in comparable no-water systems. The urinals can be installed quickly and easily in most settings, allowing for all kinds of piping configurations and and have a closed urinal bottom, specially designed to prevent vandalism—no need for costly bottom covers.
