

Tacony Adds to Growing Sales Team

Fort Worth, TX – November 2, 2011 - Tacony announces the hiring of David Nagel as the company's new Regional Sales Manager, serving New England and the eastern part of Canada.

He will be representing three divisions of Tacony: CFR, Tornado, and Powr-Flite.

David has been involved with the professional cleaning industry throughout his entire career. For nine years he was Vice President of a jansan distribution company and prior to that he was Midwest Regional Manager for a jansan manufacturer.

"I am very impressed with Tacony and really like the company's product line," says Nagel. "These machines fit perfectly in today's economy; they are very cost competitive, easy to service, durable, and I like the fact that they are American made."

Adds Ken Honaker, Vice President of Sales for Tacony: "Dave has a proven track record in the jansan industry. We have seen what he has accomplished in the past and know he will do great things for us as well."

About Tacony Corporation

Tacony Corporation brought production of Simplicity and Riccar upright vacuums to the United States in 1997. At the time Tacony Manufacturing opened its doors, the entire vacuum factory consisted of only five employees. Almost a decade later, in 2006, the 120 employees of Tacony Manufacturing proudly watched as the first 1 millionth vacuum rolled off the production line.

Headquartered in St. Louis and founded in 1946 by Nick Tacony, Tacony Corp. is a privately held manufacturing and distribution company operating in four strategic business units: household vacuum cleaners, commercial floor care products, home sewing products and ceiling fans. With more than 650 associates in 12 offices around the world, Tacony's mission is to create long-lasting relationships that are based on trust and feel like family.
